Kids get hungry. They starve, and then they die. This is the sad reality for many children around the world...but your gift can bring it to a halt. It isn't just food to fill a stomach. It's food that will fill a life. Thanks to you, children will have the opportunity to achieve the amazing things God created them for.

Schools should be a safe place of learning and growth. But without access to water, a hygienic toilet, and a place to sit and learn, many schools simply can't provide the basics that every student deserves. Under-resourced schools not only lead to a lower-quality education but can also increase the spread of disease due to poor sanitation. Providing a safe, comfortable place ensures as many children as possible can—and want to—come to school every day. Your gift will supply young, eager students with the environment and tools they need to develop a love of learning.

Without water, people die. It's as simple as that. Right now, 785 million people cannot even use a basic drinking water system. As a result, many people walk long distances to collect water...and even then there is no guarantee it will be safe to drink. When water is far away, children, especially girls, spend their time fetching water when they should be in school. In some areas, girls are also at risk of being kidnapped or violated when collecting water after dark. Simple solutions like a well, dug in just the right place, can keep children and families healthy and safe.

The goat is a humble animal, with an almost shocking ability to change families' lives. Starting with just one goat, a family can gain the income they need for food, medical care, and more. Combine this with a pay-it-forward community goat bank where families breed and then share their goats with other families, and by purchasing a single goat today you can kick-start change for generations of families.
